

Strategic Planning Model

Notes:

Action plans are an encouraged element of the strategic planning model; however, there is no requirement that they be submitted to the Governor's Office.

"Key Systems" can be any kind of system including programs, products, or processes. Improvement plans on these key systems will not need to be submitted until July 1, 2002.